

Curriculum vitae

Dr. Robert Fischer, M.D.

Subinternship at Mount Sinai school of medicine N.Y. N.Y. USA (1976)

Obstetric and gynaecologic training at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology at the University Hospital of Münster, Germany (1979-1982).

1982 one year of obstetrics and gynaecology at the Queen's Medical Centre, University of Nottingham (King's Mill Hospital Mansfield).

1983 pioneered and medical director of the first outpatient IVF-unit in Germany – Hamburg .

Medical Director of the Fertility Center Hamburg, which is one of the largest and leading private IVF centres in Germany.

In July 1998 the Fertility Center Hamburg was one of the first centres in Germany and worldwide to introduce quality management to be certified according to the ISO 9001 and in 2002 accreditation of the IVF-Lab. (ISO 17025).

Numerous publications in national and international scientific journals, book articles as well as lectures on national and international conferences.

- Founding member of the European Society of Human Reproduction (ESHRE)
- Member of the scientific committee of EXCEMED (former-SSIF)

Main interest at the moment is the development of Stimulation Protocols and GnRH-Agonist triggering as well as further developing of the quality management systems in IVF centres.